What does the Complete Count Committee do?

Establishes a plan and activities for the community to ensure all Iowa City residents are counted once and in the right place

- Meets monthly through spring 2020
- Establishes a chairperson to lead group
- Group leads activities to encourage Census participation
- Contributes to and guides "Awareness Team" initiatives
- Partners with the City of Iowa City and other local entities to maximize resources

Identifies opportunities for the committee and community members to participate in activities leading up to the Census

- Communicates US Census Bureau information through community-tailored messaging
- Plans or supports Census awareness and education campaigns by:
  - Volunteering to talk about the Census at an event like Farmer's Market or Party in the Park
  - Leading or helping schedule and promote a community meeting about the Census efforts
  - Assist with graphics or sharing materials
  - Help hand out materials and giveaways from the Census

What else can the Committee do?

The Complete Count Committee is uniquely positioned, as individuals to come together and create their own system for getting 100% Census participation. They know what resources are available and what could work in our community.
